

Name:

Success criteria for Creation and Presentation (6-10 minutes)

Knowledge: /10

- Shows knowledge and understanding of the original play, characters and themes (able to answer questions about the play if asked)
- Shows knowledge of own work (able to answer questions)

Thinking: /10

- Critical thinking is evident in media creation and analysis
- Good creativity used to present play and characters in an alternate format
- Explains the creative choices that were made in creating the assignment, why the student made those choices, and how they relate to the play
- Connects creative choices to a theme topic that is relevant to the play

Communication: /10

- Correct grammar, spelling and punctuation for written components AND/OR on media creation
- Speaks loudly, clearly, and in an engaging manner with a variety in tone
- Interacts with the audience

Application: /5

- Uses correct form for the option chosen (ex. A journal entry looks like a journal entry, a new scene uses correct formatting like the play and stage directions, slides use jot notes 6x6 rule and include pictures etc.)
- is organized and shows evidence of preparation ahead of time during class work periods